

92

2010 Serafino Bellissimo
Primitivo

Primitivo is an Italian synonym for zinfandel, or if you prefer, the other way around. It is puzzling why more vignerons have not tackled the variety, unless it's the bizarre ripening of each bunch, with individual berries ranging from green to raisin. This wine is an admirable example, with its spicy, cooked cherry fruit, cinnamon and a touch of dark chocolate, the tannins fine and supple. It will be at its best over the next 4 years. 14.5% alc.

RRP $18 /  2015 / ★★★★★

www.serafinowines.com.au