

2014 Serafino Malpas Vineyard Shiraz

Tony Love

Review from SA Weekend June 4-5 2016

From just a kilometer away, on slightly different soils, the Serafino 2014 Malpas Vineyard Shiraz ($45) has a very similar luxurious, drink-now profile with intense, dark colours, deep spice and soaked-in plum compote flavours, with lipsmacking fruit and a soft, suede like finish. Both are five stars in any language.

Tony Love

5 stars

Wine Wise

The intense, vibrant blackberry aromas are the essence of the Vale, and are enhanced by a whiff of dark chocolate. This is a wine of excellent freshness and balance with just a touch of oak which adds to the long finish. ($45.00) ★★★★★ 1,500 bottles

Soil: Ngaltinga formation

Elevation: 60 metres

Aspect: Flat